

A Perseverance Theater Production

*A mother seeks to break the cycle of family violence –
A tribe deals with the pain in silence –
A daughter finds strength by sharing her word –
Healing will begin when – Our Voices Will Be Heard*

Our Voices Will Be Heard is a 59-min radio theater adaptation of a play about a powerful mother- daughter journey that reveals how generations face the choice of continuing to perpetuate - or disrupt - family violence.

Through the lens of fiction, and the palette of Alaska Native Storytelling, the playwright tells the true story of her mother's strength against impossible pressure. Our Voices Will Be Heard weaves together legend and truth in a fierce call for healing and forgiveness.

Written by Vera Starbard (Tlingit/Dena'ina)
Directed by Larissa FastHorse (Lakota)
Music composition by Ed Littlefield (Tlingit)

CAST

Litaa – Erika Stone (Iroquois)
Kutaan – Bella King (Confederated Salish, Kootenai)
Narrator – George Holly (Deg Hit'an)
Shanaa – Jane Lind (Aleut)
Jinihaa – Frank Kaash Katasse (Tlingit)
Ta – Allan Hayton (Gwich'in)
Wanadoo – Leeta Gray (Tlingit)
Sagu – Deandre King (Tlingit)

Our Voices Will Be Heard

Distribution Information:

Available for free

Length: 00:59:00 (no breaks)

Air Window: Evergreen

Wanadoo

PRX: <http://www.prx.org/pieces/240050-our-voices-will-be-heard>

NV1 Weblink: (audio files, photos)

https://nativeftp.org/nv1specials/Our_Voices_Will_Be_Heard/

Please let us know your plans to air this program. Request this special here

<https://www.nv1.org/program-request/>, or contact Nola Daves Moses nola@nv1.org; 505-401-4532. Thanks!